

Forbo Flooring

Residential 25-year Limited Warranty

Congratulations on your decision to purchase a Forbo Marmoleum® floor!

Forbo Linoleum, Inc. ("Forbo") warrants that its Marmoleum products, when installed using Forbo's recommended procedures and adhesives, shall perform in accordance with Forbo's published specifications and shall be free from manufacturing defects under normal household use and conditions. Under "normal household use and conditions" as defined below, and further subject to the terms and conditions described below, Forbo warrants that its flooring will:

- be free from manufacturing defects;
- not wear-through;
- not permanently stain from traffic stains, including asphalt driveway sealer;
- not permanently stain from rubber or Latex backed mats;
- not fade or discolor from sunlight;
- not rip, tear, or gouge;
- not develop gaps (Marmoleum Click only); and
- resist damage from moisture due to mopping and everyday spills when removed promptly.

How Long Does The Coverage Last?

This warranty lasts for a period of twenty-five (25) years from the original date of purchase, and declines over that time as described below. Coverage terminates if you sell or otherwise transfer the floor covering products. Certain damage to the floor covering products more fully described under "What Does This Warranty Not Cover?" will also terminate this warranty prior to the end of the twenty-five (25) year period.

What Will Forbo Do?

If Forbo is notified as described, Forbo will investigate the claim and if it determines the product is defective, Forbo will deliver to the original end-user, sufficient material of same or similar quality to replace the defective product on the terms and subject to the qualifications described. In the event the original product is no longer available, Forbo will attempt to match as closely as possible the color and style of the product from its existing inventory. The price at which Forbo will provide such replacement will vary depending on the date on which the customer first notifies Forbo or the retailer as described below. If notified within the first year after purchase and if Forbo subsequently determines that such product is defective, Forbo will provide the original purchaser with replacement product without charge (exclusive of any costs of removal, costs of installation or shipping costs), thereafter a declining discount off of the then current Forbo price would apply and would decline by 4% per year. By way of example, if a customer provided a notice in the second year after purchase and if Forbo subsequently determines that such product is defective, the original purchaser would receive a discount of 96% off the then current Forbo price. If the notice was provided in the third year after purchase and if Forbo subsequently determines that such product is defective, the original purchaser would receive a discount of 92% off of the then current Forbo price. This percentage will continue to decline until a notification in year 24 but before the 25th anniversary of purchase, at which time the customer would receive a discount of 8% off of the then current Forbo price.

What Does This Warranty Not Cover?

This warranty does not cover:

- any product which has not been installed or maintained in accordance with Forbo's written instructions (and in particular the "Forbo Flooring Installation Manual" and the "Forbo Flooring Maintenance Guide");
- loss of gloss, scratches or build-up of dulling film caused by a lack of proper cleaning; damages arising from a failure to follow care instructions (including, without limitation, burns, cuts, tears, scratches, scuffs, indentation damage from high heels, rolling loads, improperly casted chairs, failure to use recommended floor protectors and the like, damage or discoloration from adhesives and floor care products not recommended by Forbo);
- damages arising from accidents (e.g., fire, flooding, rain, storms, hot items dropped or placed on floor);
- damages arising from misuse or abuse e.g., sliding heavy objects such as furniture and appliances, dropping heavy or sharp objects, damage from caster wheels, damage from spiked or cleated shoes) or exposure to undue wear and tear;
- extended direct exposure to moisture, alkali, acids, hydrostatic pressure damage from the subfloor, mold or mildew;
- installation of Marmoleum Click over concrete subfloor or radiant heated floors (unless a non-recycled (100% virgin) resin 6 mil. polyethylene film vapor barrier with a density of 0.92 lbs./cubic ft. and a thickness tolerance of +/-10% is installed over such concrete subfloor and that emits a water vapor no greater than 3 lbs. per 1000 sq. ft. within 24 hrs.);
- installation of Marmoleum sheet or tile flooring over gypsum cement underlayments, lightweight aggregate concrete or any concrete subfloor (unless installed over such concrete subfloor and that emits a water vapor no greater than 5 lbs. per 1000 sq. ft. within 24 hrs.);
- dissatisfaction due to improper cleaning or installation;
- differences in color between samples or photographs and the actual flooring;
- gaps existing at the time of installation (Marmoleum Click only);
- obvious physical defects existing at the time of installation; or construction related damages.

IN NO EVENT SHALL FORBO HAVE ANY OBLIGATION TO COVER ANY COSTS OF REMOVAL, COSTS OF INSTALLATION OR SHIPPING COSTS.

Although Forbo warrants that Marmoleum Click product will not develop gaps or obvious visible defects, Forbo recommends that the customer and installer insure that all panel joints close tightly without gaps during installation and that there be no obvious physical defects. Should there be a gap or obvious physical defect at the time of installation, the flooring should not be installed.

Please also note that Drying Room Ambering is a naturally occurring part of the curing process of the linseed oil in our floors. A yellowish film may develop on the surface of the flooring, distorting the true color beneath it. This film dissipates very quickly with exposure to natural light and reasonably quickly with exposure to artificial light. You may experience this ambering in areas where rubber or latex mats have been placed for prolonged periods of time. It will dissipate with exposure to light and is not covered by this warranty.

What are "Normal household use and conditions"?

"Normal household use and conditions" is defined as common daily activities in a residential home. This excludes, among other uses, the use of the flooring for other than residential applications, in which case the terms of this warranty will not apply.

After Forbo is notified, Forbo reserves the right to have an authorized Forbo representative inspect your floor to determine whether the floor is defective for purposes of coverage under this limited warranty. There is no charge for inspection. Any replacement will be provided only after Forbo's inspection of the product and its agreement to the defective condition. Forbo and its representatives must be permitted reasonable access to your floor for the inspection and testing of the product. How Does State Law Apply? This warranty gives you specific legal rights, and you may also have other rights which vary from state to state. Some states do not allow limitations on how long an implied warranty lasts and some states do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so certain limitations or exclusions may not apply to you. THIS LIMITED REPLACEMENT WARRANTY IS THE SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE WARRANTY PROVIDED BY FORBO AND REPLACES ALL OTHER ORAL OR WRITTEN WARRANTIES, LIABILITIES OR OBLIGATIONS OF FORBO. Forbo does not grant to any person or entity (including its field representatives, dealers or distributors) the authority to create for it any obligation or liability in connection with its floor covering products. FORBO'S TOTAL, COMPLETE AND EXCLUSIVE LIABILITY HEREUNDER SHALL BE LIMITED TO REPLACEMENT OF DEFECTIVE PRODUCT AS PROVIDED HEREIN AND SHALL NOT EXCEED THE VALUE OF THE DEFECTIVE PRODUCT PURCHASED. PURCHASER WAIVES ALL OTHER REMEDIES, WARRANTIES AND LIABILITIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED (TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW), WHETHER ARISING BY OPERATION OF LAW OR OTHERWISE. FORBO SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR LOSS OF PROFITS, DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR OTHER DAMAGES UNDER THIS LIMITED WARRANTY OR FROM ANY CAUSE WHATSOEVER, WHETHER BASED UPON WARRANTY, NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY OR OTHERWISE. SOME STATES DO NOT ALLOW LIMITATIONS ON, OR THE EXCLUSION OF, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, SO THE ABOVE EXCLUSIONS MAY NOT APPLY TO YOU. This exclusive and limited remedy shall not fail of its essential purpose by reason of timeliness, caused by reasons beyond Forbo's reasonable control or the general concerns of purchaser or end-user.
