OPAL Community Land Trust
Covenants, Conditions, and Restrictions for Oberon Wood

Adopted by the Board of Trustees 7/3/02

The OPAL Community Land Trust (OPAL CLT), of which all Oberon Wood lessees are members, is a nonprofit corporation organized for charitable purposes, including but not limited to the development and preservation of decent, affordable housing and home-ownership opportunities for low- and moderate-income people in the San Juan County area. The legal documents from which OPAL CLT derives its existence and manages its affairs are the OPAL CLT by-laws and articles of incorporation, the ground lease, and the covenants, conditions, and restrictions (CC&Rs) that apply to each OPAL CLT housing group.

The residents agree, as a condition of living at Oberon Wood:

1. To abide by and enforce these CC&Rs.
2. To participate in regularly scheduled residents meetings to discuss and make decisions about issues affecting the community.

OPAL CLT agrees:

1. To manage and maintain a maintenance fund (paid for by a portion of the lease fee) that enables Oberon Wood residents to annually maintain the common areas, as identified on the face of the plat, which include roads, pedestrian trails, buildings located in the common area, drainage swales, detention basins, vegetative buffers, and landscape buffers. OPAL CLT reserves the right to administer those funds on behalf of the residents to ensure a high standard of ongoing maintenance;
2. To manage a reserve fund (paid for by a portion of the lease fee) that enables OPAL CLT to perform occasional major maintenance and repairs of common infrastructure such as roads, utilities, storm drainage, and storm damage;
3. To provide adequate public liability and property insurance on the communally owned lands to protect the interests of OPAL CLT and the lessees;
4. To protect and preserve property values and ecological and neighborhood health through enforcement of these protective CC&Rs.

Statement of Philosophy

The residents of Oberon Wood intend to live together in harmony with an attitude of tolerance, cooperation, and consideration for each other. We agree to communicate openly with everyone in the group and to avoid possible conflicts by speaking to each other before we make any changes to our property that may affect the neighborhood. Such changes may include, but are not limited to, unusual exterior paint choices, additions, patios, fencing, ancillary structures, decks, landscaping, and removing or planting large trees. We intend to be sensitive to each individual’s lot and view and will endeavor to find solutions that work for everyone. Our hope is that everyone can get their needs met within our community.

Community Review

The Oberon Wood community uses as its primary self-managing tool the process of community review. Where these CC&Rs call for community review, or where any resident requests an exception to any of these CC&Rs, or where two or more residents are in a continuing conflict with one another, the issue shall be submitted to community review. This involves bringing the issue first before a meeting of Oberon Wood residents with at least three households represented. At least two weeks notice shall be given to all community residents of any such meetings. If the residents are unable to resolve the issue themselves, they will request help from the OPAL CLT Residents’ Committee. The residents shall come to a decision through consensus, as outlined in Appendix A of the OPAL CLT bylaws.

A. Relation Between Oberon Wood East and Oberon Wood West

The 5 leasehold lots and common area A on the eastern side of Oberon Wood and the proposed development of up to 6 residences and common area B on the western part of the OW long plat will maintain separate identities, named, for the purposes of this document, Oberon Wood East (OWE) and Oberon Wood West (OWW). OWE and OWW will share the right of way into the neighborhood.

Communication and cordial relations between the two groups will be maintained primarily in accordance with the statement of philosophy in these CC&Rs, namely through the intention to live as neighbors in harmony with an attitude of tolerance, cooperation, and consideration for each other. Liaisons shall be appointed by OWE and OWW to foster communication between the groups. The liaisons shall be notified of any meetings regarding revisions of these CC&Rs, joint neighborhood activities, and conflicts between OWE and OWW should they arise.

These CC&Rs will apply to both OWE and OWW at the outset. If either group wishes to revise their CC&Rs, they will do so through consensus, in consultation with the liaison of the other community.

Conflict issues are not expected to arise. However, in the event of an issue that affects both groups, the following procedure will be followed:

The Liaisons of each group will be notified and invited to attend any meetings held regarding the conflict. The liaison will bring the issue to a residents' meeting in his/her area for community review. If OWW is developed as rental units, the OWW property manager will be the first point of contact toward conflict resolution should the OWE and OWW residents be unable to resolve the conflict internally.

B. Vehicle Regulations

1. The parking of boats over 12 feet, trailers, campers, and RVs is prohibited unless special permission is granted through community review. Kayaks, canoes, rowboats and sailboats under 12 feet are allowed, but shall be stored out of sight of the neighbors.

4. Any resident wishing to keep any outdoor animal(s) other than cats or dogs shall get approval first from the community through community review.

2. Parents are ultimately responsible for their children and for any damage or annoyance their children cause to neighbors or any property, and they will take action to resolve the issue.

J. Business Uses

1. Business uses within a home are permitted as long as such uses conform to county, state, and federal zoning regulations.

4. Porches with common views shall not be used for storage, including appliances.
